ANNEX A TO POLICY ON THE INDUCTION OF NEW STAFF

THE INDUCTION OF MEMBERS OF THE TEACHING STAFF NEW TO CHELSEA INDEPENDENT COLLEGE

GENERAL

1. The induction period is to provide a level of professional support which will introduce the newly appointed member of staff to the practices and procedures of the department and the College. Lesson observations and regular meetings with the Head of Faculty provide evidence for termly assessments of progress and, at the end of the third term, for the satisfactory completion of the induction period.
2. The induction of temporary and short-term staff employed to work in a classroom environment at Chelsea (e.g. Supply Teachers) is to be based on the principles outlined in this Annex but at an appropriate level that is needs driven, according to the length of time that they will be working at the College.

THE INDUCTION PROGRAMME

3. In terms of support during the induction period, the programme is to address issues in the following areas:
 - a) Getting to know the Department – schemes of work, methods of assessment, resources etc.
 - b) Teaching skills – planning, classroom management, recording and reporting etc.
 - c) Pastoral issues – the role of the tutor and heads of school, IEPs, child protection etc.
 - d) Professional issues – career development, training, health and safety etc.
4. Some of the above issues are also dealt with in the Staff Handbook, which the newly appointed teacher is to be given during an initial visit.

THE INITIAL VISIT

5. The aims of the visit are to:
 - a) Meet the departmental staff.
 - b) Meet other staff in the College and develop an understanding of their roles.
 - c) Become familiar with the geography of the College.
 - d) Meet with the Head of Faculty to discuss the induction programme and assessment procedure.
 - e) Receive the Staff Handbook and link to School policies.

SUPPORT DURING THE INDUCTION PROGRAMME

6. Professional support will come from the Head of Faculty and where relevant the Head of Department, both of whom will meet with the newly appointed teacher on a regular basis.
7. The Head of Faculty will be responsible for the induction of new staff in both a formal and informal manner, including:
 - a) Organising the initial visit.
 - b) Liaising with the HoD, where relevant, in departmental induction.
 - c) Providing opportunities for external INSET.
 - d) Providing informal help and advice.
 - e) Implementing the formal induction programme.
8. The Head of Faculty will be responsible for the induction of new staff into the relevant department and will undertake the following:
 - a) Introduction of departmental schemes of work and procedures.
 - b) School and departmental disciplinary arrangements.
 - c) Resources available.
 - d) Timetable.
 - e) Lesson observations, copies of which are to be saved on SIMs.
 - f) School and departmental assessment arrangements.
 - g) Staff professional review procedures.
 - h) School policies.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

9. Teaching staff will be subject to a probationary period of one year, which may be extended following consultation and discussion between the Principal and the member of staff.
 - a) First term
 - i. The member of staff will be observed by their Head of Faculty and where appropriate their Head of Department within the first five weeks of the start of term. This lesson observation will have been agreed with the member of staff in advance of taking place.
 - ii. A work scrutiny, including check of the centralised mark books and student's work, to ensure it is compliant with the College's marking policy is undertaken in the first half-term.

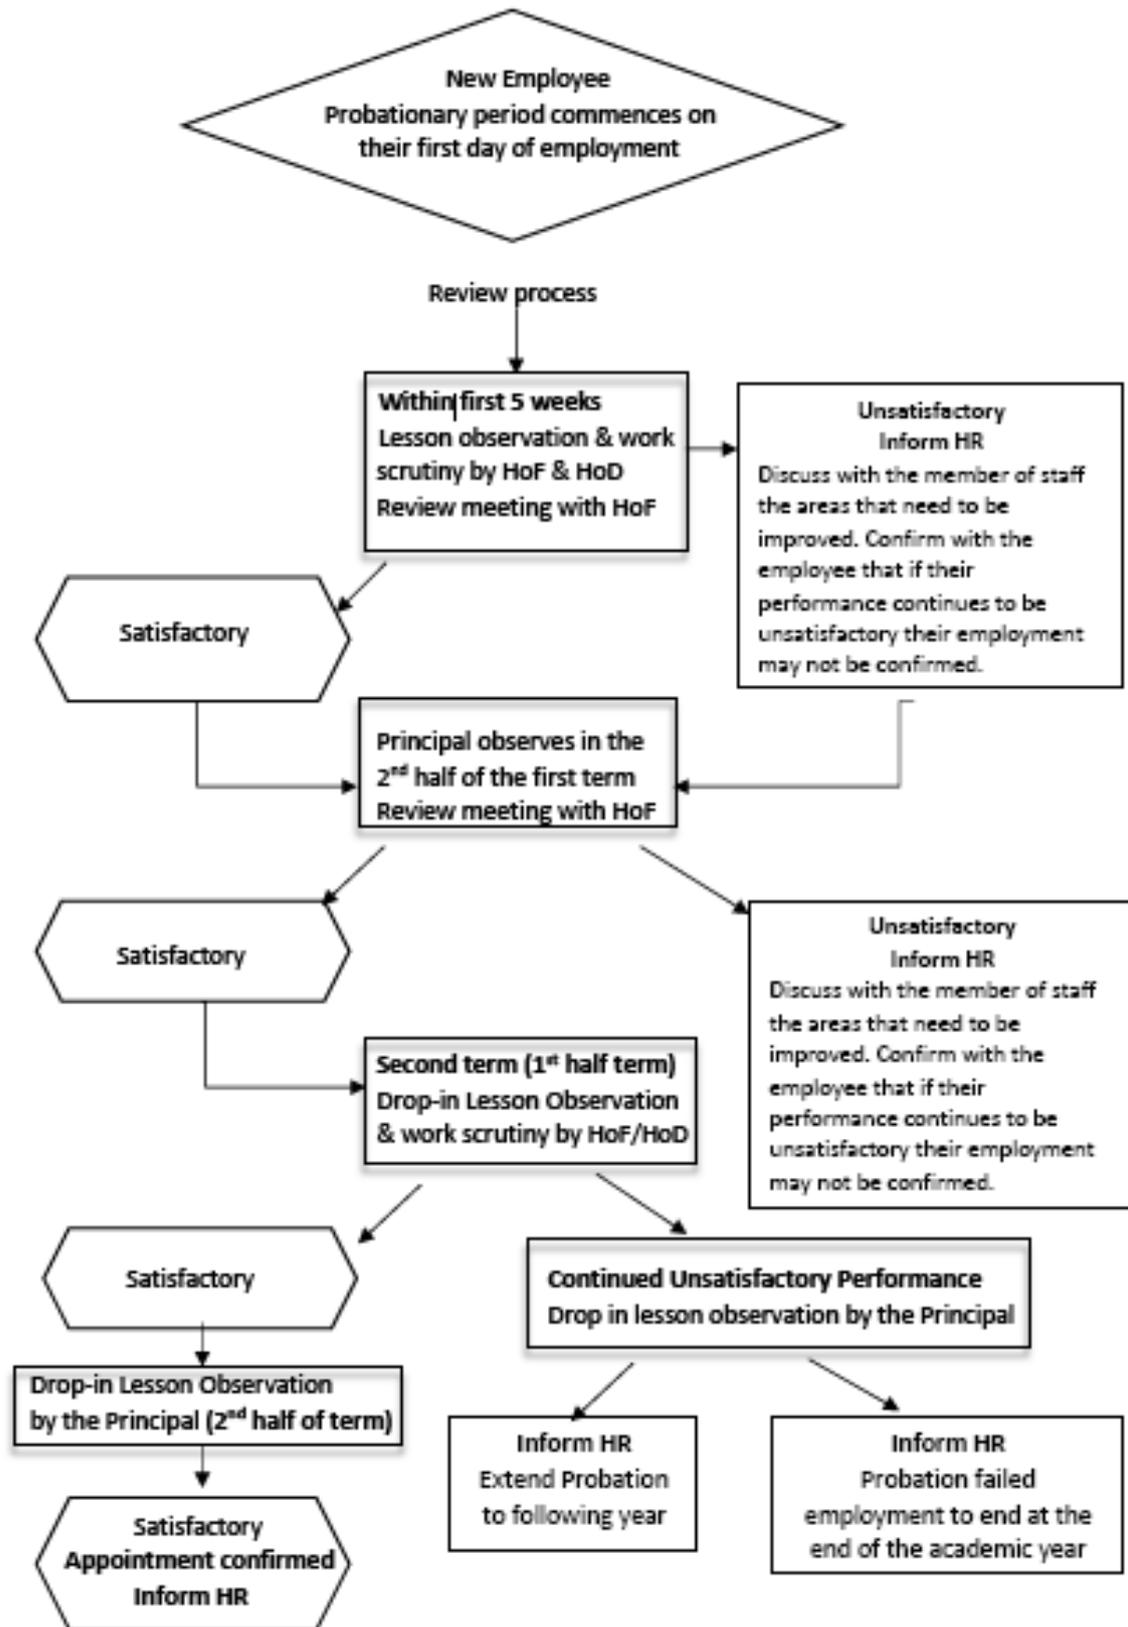

- iii. A meeting to review the first half-term will take place in the final week of that half-term. If any concerns are noted at this stage, these must be recorded, communicated to the member of staff and passed to HR.
- iv. The Principal will watch the member of staff in the second half of the first term. This lesson observation will have been agreed with the member of staff in advance of taking place.
- v. If, at this stage concerns are evident, the member of staff will be spoken to by the Head of Faculty and Teaching & Learning Coordinator. The member of staff will be alerted to the fact that they are not performing satisfactorily and advised of the areas of concern. These concerns will be recorded and reported to HR.

b) Second term

- i. The member of staff will be observed by their Head of Faculty and their Head of Department within the first half term. This will be an unannounced, “drop-in” lesson observation.
- ii. A work scrutiny, including check of the centralised mark books and student’s work to ensure that adherence to the College’s marking policy remains and that marking is helping students improve their performance, by providing useful feedback.
- iii. During the second half term the Principal will undertake a “drop-in” lesson observation.
- iv. If, at this stage concerns come to light, the member of staff will be spoken to by the Head of Faculty and Teaching & Learning Coordinator. The member of staff will be alerted to the fact that they are not performing satisfactorily and advised of the areas of concern.
- v. It may be necessary to extend a member of staff’s probationary period at this stage, which will follow a discussion with the Principal.
- vi. If concerns remain after the first term, the member of staff will meet the Principal and be advised that either
 - a) Their probationary period will be extended in to the following academic year or
 - b) They will be advised that they have failed their probationary period and will be have their contract terminated at the end of the academic year.

10. It is also hoped that other departmental members will act as informal mentors and that all staff will be as welcoming as possible.
